state + cs +E. DONALD ERICKSON APPOINTED
INTERNAL AUDITOR AT UNIVERSITY

MISSOULA--

E. Donald Erickson, a 41-year old Havre native, has been appointed internal auditor at the University of Montana in Missoula by UM President Robert T. Pantzer. The appointment was effective Dec. 1.

The new internal auditor succeeds Ray Menier (pronounced Men-Yay), who is now employed at the University of Idaho, Moscow.

Erickson, who ranched near Chinook from 1970 until recently, is a former Air Force officer.

As internal auditor at UM, Erickson is in charge of reviewing the University's business and financial procedures and he will make recommendations to Pantzer for changes and improvements. He also will serve as a liaison between UM and all auditors who visit the Missoula campus.

Erickson, a 1950 graduate of Havre High School, received his Bachelor of Science degree in business administration at UM in 1954.

He served in the Air Force as an internal auditor from 1955-70. He was promoted from second lieutenant to major during that time and was awarded the Air Force Commendation Medal. Erickson took graduate accounting courses at Michigan State University, East Lansing, in 1965-66 and he studied at American University, Washington, D.C., from 1967-69. He received the Master of Business administration degree in management information systems at American University in 1969.

Erickson and his wife, the former Marlys L. Haney of Butte, have four children.
